

GOVERNANCE 2024

You're Not Just A Member. You're An Owner.

Since 1935, Justice Federal Credit Union has been a Member-owned, not-for-profit financial institution.

When you joined Justice Federal Credit Union, you became a Member-owner with a vote and a voice at the Credit Union. Your Share represents your part-ownership in the cooperative and entitles you to vote in the annual election of the Board of Directors. These elected volunteers donate their time to represent you in the oversight and governance of your Credit Union.

Justice Federal Credit Union's Nominating Committee, in accordance with the bylaws, has submitted the following nominees, listed on the reverse side, to the Secretary to serve either a two or three-year term on the 2024 Board of Directors.

The term for a Board of Director begins in May 2024. The Nominating Committee will move to fill four positions with the four candidates at hand. Each of the candidates has consented to the nomination and has agreed to serve per the terms specified below. An election will not be held by ballot and there will be no nominations from the floor when there is only one nominee for each position to be filled.

The Nominating Committee Chair will declare the nominees elected by general affirmation at the upcoming Annual Shareholders Meeting to be conducted on Thursday, May 23, 2024, at 5:00 PM, EDT at the Department of Justice, First Floor Conference Room, 950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530. No voting will take place at the Annual Meeting.

JOAN A. BUCKLEY, (INCUMBENT) ALEXANDRIA, VA Ms. Buckley joined the Justice Federal Credit Union Board in May 2017. She was the Board Secretary for four years and currently holds the position of Board Vice Chair. Ms. Buckley served twenty years as a special agent of the FBI including investigative and management positions in New York, Boston, FBI Headquarters, and London, England. Her work primarily focused on financial cases including securities fraud and terrorist financing. Highlights of her career include her successful $100 million foreign currency exchange fraud investigation featured on an NBC News segment of Tom Brokaw's The Fleecing of America and the conviction of a prominent shoe designer who manipulated the initial public offering of his company which was depicted in the movie The Wolf of Wall Street. While in London, she facilitated three successful investigations with foreign partners originating through domestic undercover cases of subjects using bitcoins on the black market for purchases of illegal substances with the intention to harm themselves or others. Prior to joining the FBI, Ms. Buckley progressed through various operational and management assignments for several Boston-based banks departing at the Vice-President level. Ms. Buckley earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts, and a Master of Business Administration from Babson College in Wellesley, Massachusetts.

LAMONTE D. PURDIE, (INCUMBENT) DUMFRIES, VA Lamonte is an FBI Senior Executive Service, currently serving as the Section Chief of the Operational Technology Division's (OTD) Resource Management Section (RMS). Lamonte provides executive strategic business consultation services in furthering the division's mission. He provides executive leadership, direction, and strategy on all business management services, and the division's transition to Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama. Lamonte is one of two Co-Executive Champions for the Black Affairs Diversity Committee and Diversity Executive Council. He has a Master of Science degree in Engineering Management from George Washington University, a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Maryland University College, and pursued MBA courses at the Naval Post Graduate School. He holds graduate certificates in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in the Workplace from the University of South Florida's Muma College of Business, Business Analytics from University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business, National Leadership Preparedness Initiative from Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government, and Cybersecurity: Managing Risk in the Information Age from Harvard University's Office of the Vice Provost for Advances in Learning. He also volunteers on the Justice Federal Credit Union (JFCU) Supervisory Committee and served as Board Director and Treasurer of the JFCU Foundation.

ROBIN A. STARK-NUTTER, (INCUMBENT) LOST CREEK, WV Mrs. Stark-Nutter has been a member of the Justice Federal Credit Union Supervisory Committee since 2006. In this capacity, she provided oversight to audits and member complaints. Mrs. Stark-Nutter served in various positions with the FBI for 26 years. She served as the Unit Chief for the Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division Audit Unit for 8 years, leading staff in audits of law enforcement and non-criminal justice agencies and their use of CJIS Systems. She served seven years as the Special Assistant to the CJIS Division's Assistant Director(s), viewing all CJIS operations from the 30,000 ft view and she implemented a division wide policy and strategy process. For three years, Mrs. Stark-Nutter led the CJIS Division's Resources Management Section as a senior executive overseeing nine distinct units with varying administrative, financial, security, facilities, and multi-media functions. The last five years of her career with the FBI, she led the National Instant Criminal Background Check (NICS) Section, the largest operating section within the FBI that was also a high-profile operation immersed in the political and sensitive firearm industry. Prior to joining the FBI, for approximately four years, Mrs. Stark-Nutter conducted regulatory inspections/audits of airlines. She also spent six years in sales and management. Mrs. Stark-Nutter holds a Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in marketing obtained from Marshall University in Huntington, West Virginia.

THOMAS L. WISEMAN, (INCUMBENT) PORT CLINTON, OH Tom served over 30 years as a Special Agent of the FBI. His FBI career included management positions in both the field and headquarters. Following Mr. Wiseman's FBI service, he was the Director of Operations for the National Insurance Crime Bureau. For six years he served as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Justice Federal Credit Union. Prior to that, he served for three years as the Vice-Chairman of the Justice Federal Credit Union Board of Directors. Additionally, Mr. Wiseman has contributed his knowledge and time to Justice Federal Credit Union by serving in many capacities on the Board of Directors, including the positions of Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and Chairman of the Nominating Committee, as well as serving on numerous other Board committees. Mr. Wiseman received his bachelor's degree from Capital University and his law degree from Case-Western Reserve University. He is a member of the Ohio Bar.